On account of the second annual excursion of Miller & Rhoads Employes' Association TO BUCKROE BEACH-

The Store Will Close at 1 P. M.

Miller & Rhoads

It Combines the Sale of Thousands of

Remnants of Wash Fabrics

Remnants Plain and Fancy Silks Remnants of Dress Goods

With Many Odd and Broken Lots of

Ready-to-Wear Garments

Summer Undergarments

Items for Home

Notions and Small

PEOPLE WANT NO

Cast for Him Insures a Busi-

All at prices which for lowness are EXTRAORDIN-ARY! Every departmet will have its full quota of interesting bargins to offer to-day. Visit the store and save money.

MILITANT RECTOR VISITS RICHMOND

Rev. George Chalmers Richmond, Commissioner Koiner Says Vote

Used as a chapel.

The action of the prison board in abandoning the old cellhouse was of Philadelphia, Inspects

INVESTIGATE OUTBREAK

BOARD INDORSES

house, and Kitchen Is Now Sanitary.

FINDS MUCH TO - COMMEND LEAVES THREE IN THE RACE

That Men Are Gaining in Weight and Health.

Emphatic approval of the new dining-room at the State Penitentiary was expressed last night by the committee of the State Board of Charities, mittee of the State Board of Charities, which made the annual visitation of the prison yesterday morning. Other reforms which have been introduced by the Penitentiary Board, in co-operation with Superhitendent Wood, were also Indorsed, and the reports from the new convict road camps were declared to be most encouraging. lared to be most encouraging

Special interest attached to the in-spection made yesterday by reason of the fact that it was the first time the Board of Charities had formally vis-ited the prison since May 1, when the law reducing the number of prison-ers on contract to 500 became effective

With the reduction in the prison population, the old "horseshoe" building, used for cells since the erection of the penitentiary in 1798, has been vacated, and all the prisoners have been placed in the new cellhouse erected to the south of the old building. This has left idle a large amount of space, of which, according to the Board of Charities, the prison authorities have made great use. used for cells since the erection

Solves Big Problem.
In particular, the old storeroom has In particular, the old storeroom has been converted into a large apartment, which solves one of the greatest problems of the penitentiary. Until the present time it has been necessary to cook the convicts food in old rooms which were formerly used as dungeons. The food was then brought into the courtest and mass requirements. turned into a splendid dining-room abandoning the old cellhouse heartily indersed by the Boar The new building, however, which will

what brought man to Richhis metrics are spirit of the times.

what brought man to Richhis metrics are spirit of the times.

What brought man to Richhis metrics are now in good working order and are being operated without inconvenience.

It is statement follows:
In particular, they are said to be improving the general health of the improving the general health of the prisoners. In one case reported by Mr. O'Neill, twelve convicts sent to the road camp were taken at random, and as a unit. I received the majority of it. Leaving the cities, and coming to the counties, the returns show that sixteen pounds. This is regarded as a splendid vindication of the argument advanced in the General Assembly

Reported Typhoid in Verginia Towns Being Studied by State Board, and percent outbreaks of hyphoid fever in the State are being investigated as rapidly as possible by the State Board of Health and in particular a small entirest of the use of typhoid varcine is being carefully studied. The denied that he had been in the board, though widely scrittered were board in the found of the state are being investigated as rapidly as possible by the State Board of Health and in particular a small entirest of the use of typhoid varcine is being carefully studied. The denied that he had been in swing from his board in house, it was said, complaining of feeling III. He said he was going to was ever in Virginia, saying he had to be favorable.

W. S. Thompson, of Fredericksburg, who fell last Sunday while and Detective Sergeant Krengel and Detective Juffy, theef Jensen yes in Richmond visiting with his mother died at the Man Missing Since Monday.

The least Man Missing Since Monday.

The police last night were asked to look for J. F. Williams, twenty-three years old, a laborer, who has been missing from his boarding house, in color 61 per cent, in color 621 Necth Thirtieth Street, since Monday afternoon. Williams left the house, it was said, complaining of feeling III. He said he was going to was ever in Virginia, saying he had was ever in Virginia, saying he had was ever in Virginia, saying he had to be for supper. Nothing has since been for supper suppe

County Marringe Idense.

A marriage license was issued yesterday afternoon by Deputy Clerk Thomas E. Fletcher, of Henrico Circuit Court, to William Paul Jones and Miss Fannie Lorraine Farmer, both of Henrico County.

having -

Questioned by Krengel whether she id received any jewelry from Leslie is woman said not in a long while is added, however, that a long while to the ex-convict gave her a watch bich she turned over to the officers proved to be a solid gold timepiece high the police are certain Leslie die in Newport Wews.

GEN. ANDERSON

Convicts Placed in New Cell- Former Adjutant-General Announces That He Will Not Seek Office Under Stuart.

Reports From Road Camps Show Statement Sets at Rest Rumor Which Had Attracted Attention in Military Circles.

> While his name had been mentioned as a possible candidate for Adjutant-General of Virginia, General Charles J. Anderson, who served in that office for eight years under Governor O'Ferrall and under Governor Swanson, authorized the statement yesterday that he had never considered the question of making application for appointmen

This statement on his part sets at rest a rumor and leaves the field to Adjutant-General Sale, Major T. M. Wortham and Major E. W. Bowles. Since General Anderson's name was first mentioned many of his friends have urged him to seek the appointment, though he said yesterday that he wanted his position known so that there would be no uncertainty as to Long in the Service.

General Anderson's refusal to stand for the appointment calls attention to his long service with the militla of Virginia a service. which began in which corps he participated in and brigadier-general, succeeding Gen-Kinney during the illness of the incument, and was made was made Adjutant-Gen-Governor O'Ferrall in 1894. he was again appointed office by Governor Swand General Anderson notified him that would not be a candidate for reap-itment, but upon Governor Mann's held the office until March. 10, when his successor could qualify, is active service, therefore, extended erved in the City Council and in both

Superintendent Davis Submits Analyses Made During

Friday-Washington Park. Saturday-Byrd Park.

The Young Man

entering upon a matrimonial venture can make no better beginning than the opening of a bank account with a strong

The American National Bank of Richmond, Virginia,

In time of misfortune or sickness his savings will prove a substantial friend, and give him the

PROTECTION THAT PROTECTS.

Capital and Surplus......$1,600,000

$16.00 for Suits Worth Up to $28.00 $1.39 for Straw Hats Worth Up to $3.50 $1.15 for Summer Shirts Worth Up to $2.50

Above specials are very attractive in price and assortments. Plenty of Suits, Hats and Shirts for the extra large men.

GANS-RADY COMPANY

Will Bequeaths $40,000 Each to Second Hearing of Charges Plans for Convention of Ameri-Three Surviving Sisters. Many Other Bequests.

The will of Mrs. Junius A. Morris,

Glover qualified yesterday as executor. The three principal beneficiaries are Mrs. Emma K. Tinsley, Mrs. Walter H. Nelson and Mrs. Alice L. Kent, sisters of the deceased, each of whom re-coives a legacy of $40,000. In addithis, each are bequeathed in equal shares the undistributed portion of the estate inherited by the deceased from her father, Horace L. Kent.
Among other beneficiaries and the amount of their bequests are: Mrs. David Sinclair, $25,000; Mrs. Alice Kent Tinsley Dickinson, $20,000; Mrs. William J. Rowley, $20,000; Mrs. Clyde G. Brown, $20,000, Mrs. Edmund Morris, $10,000, Mrs.

ma K. Tinsley, one of the three by Isaac Davenport, Coleman war-tham and John Pickrell. Much of the estate is in improved city realt sage from the river through the set-tling and coagulating basins is shown break for liberty would be made, but as fast as the cowed prisoners were released they were placed under a heavily armed guard, and the whole body of inmates marched to the portico of the Capitol, where they were inspected and all accounted for. They remained under guard until daylight, when the men were taken to the armory and the women to the barracks for safekeeping,

Nearly all of the buildings, except some of the cells, the dining room and kitchen, were destroyed. It was thought that a "trusty" had concealed himself in the shoe shop and set fire to the building in attempting to escape, but this was never proved.

The penitentlary was started in 12, 1798, and the building opened with twenty-three prisoners early in 1800. of ninety years ago.

FOUR ARRESTED

Policeman Henrs Disturbance and Nabs
Two Men and Two Women.
Sound of an unusual disturbance in the dwelling at 23 West Canal Street last night attracted the attention of Patrolman Krouse, and upon investigation he found a general "rough-house" in progress. He arrested four negroes, two women and two men, for creating the disturbance, while the charge of folonious assault was made against one of the women, Carrie Hunt, who was alleged to have hit Hattie Rowland and Lettie Prosser with a poker. The trouble is said to have started when the Rowland woman, who was arrested for disorderly conduct, tried to enter the home of Carrie Hunt. Others arrested by Krouse included Louis
Bentley and James Morton. Policeman Henrs Disturbance and Nabs

BON AIR INQUIRY RESUMED TO-DAY

Against Girls' Home to Be Conducted in Capitol.

Public interest will temporarily cenlate of 216 East Grace Street, admitted tre to-day on the investigation of charges brought against the administration of the Virginia Industrial Ilome and School for Girls, located at Bon Air, which will be reopened at 9 o'clock this morning, when the board of directors meets in the House of Delegates for the second hearing, will assemble to a social organization, board of directors meets in the House of Delegates for the second hearing of testimony. The first hearing was held in the Bon Air Home on July 12, and, while bringing out the fact that Heverly Banks, a middle-aged negroman, superintended the girls at work in the fields and called them by their first names, failed to produce the startling disclosures predicted by some.

It is rather than a social organization, will assemble here in its annual congress, bringing gas engineers and gas plant superintendents from every city of this country and parts of Europe, on October 15, remaining in session four or five days.

The August number of the Gas Institute News might be called a Richmond number, as pages are given to llam J. Rowley, $20,000; Mrs. Clyde G. Brown, $20,000, Mrs. Edmund Morris, $10,000; Miss Ida Viola Kent, $20,000; Mrs. John Graham, $10,000, and Mrs. Cyrus H. Thompson, $10,000—all nieces of the deceased. Nephews are remembered in the following amounts: George Merwin Nelson, $6,000, and Horace Kent Caldwell, $1,000.

Charles Edward Dickinson, Jr., a great-nephew, is left $10,000, and Barton Morris, son of Mrs. Grace Brook Smith Morris, a niece, receives $2,000.

And Mrs. Charles Edward Dickinson, Jr., a great-nephew, is left $10,000, and Barton Morris, son of Mrs. Grace Brook Smith Morris, a niece, receives $2,000.

And Many Witnesses.

The investigation into the administration of this institution was ordered about July 1 by Governor Mann, on the basis of stories told him by two the basis of stories told him by two of the loard of directors courted the inquiry and aided the investigation into the administration of this institution was ordered about July 1 by Governor Mann, on the basis of stories told him by two of the basis of stories told him by two of the basis of stories told him by two of the basis of stories told him by two of the basis of stories told him by two of the basis of stories told him by two of the basis of stories told him by two of the basis of stories told him by two of the basis of stories told him by two of the basis of stories told him by two of the basis of stories told him by two of the basis of stories told him by two of the basis of stories told him by two of the basis of stories told him by two of the basis of stories told him by two of the basis of stories told him by two of the basis of stories told him by two the basis of stories told him by two of the basis of stories told him by two of the basis of stories told him by two the basis of stories told him by two of the basis of stories told him by two the basis of stories told him by two the basis of stories told him by two of the basis of stories told him by two of the basis of stories told him by two of the basis of stories told h publicity given the last hearing, Mrs. Morris died in Atlantic City, N.

J., on August 3. The will bears the date of May 29, 1912, and is witnessed by Isaac Davenport, Coleman Wortham and John Pickrell. Much of the estate is in improved city realty.

mates of the Virginia Industrial Home and School for Girls. Two or three of those who gave evidence at the July hearing will be recalled to the stand to-day. As at the previous thearing, Dr. Douglas S. Freeman will conduct the examination of witnesses one how apart.

of the on congressional districts with the control of the congressional districts of the control of the congression of the cong

Pa., Served Ten Years in Virginia Penitentiary.

Chief of Police Jens K. Jensen, of Ogontz, Pa. arrived in Richmond yesterday to collect evidence against a collect evidence of the river pleasants was among the first there, and took charge of the situation.

When it was seen that the cells collect evidence of the river and took charge of the situation.

When it was even that the cells for and took charge of the situation.

When it was even that the cells collect evidence of the intervent evidence against a collect evidence against a collect evidence against a collect evidence against a collect evidence of the river and took charge of the situation.

When it was even that the cells collect evidence of the river and took charge of the situation.

The alater that the col

Ready!

any line of endeavor. It's the cardi-There have been several serious fires nal feature of our service-always since the founding of the Institution, ready for your order. That and our but none of such proportions as that prompt deliveries by auto truck constitute a service that should receive your careful consideration, Mr.

> Make a test case of your next order.

McGraw-Yarbrough Co. WHOLESALE PLUMBING SUPPLIES.

> 122 South Eighth Street. New Phone 62

can Gas Institute in October Are Announced.

Richmond, the meeting place of the next convention of the American Gas gust 8 in the courtroom of the State Corporation Commission. The scene of the session was ordered changed yesterday because the hall of the House of Delegates will accommodate a much larger audience than could be squeezed into the courtroom.

Many Witnesses.

The second hearing was set for Au-praise of this city and its beauty. Graceful allusion to Richmond as a convention city leads of the editorial of the magazine, while pletures of the magazine, while pletures of the Jefferson Hotel, the convention headquarters, and points of interest in the city decorate the back of the cover and several inside pages. Half adozen pages are given to description. and the accommodations offered

The arrival of these aughters to the Country Club of Vir ginia in the afternoon, and at night the Chamber of Commerce gives a reception ' Governor Mann, Mayor Ains Commerce will be among the guests night. The Illuminating Engineering Society will meet with the Gas Insti-tute in joint session on Friday.

HENRICO MAN MISSING

County Authorities Have Been Asked to Institute Search for Ross Cowan.

The Henrico police authorities have been requested to institute a search for Ross H. Cowan, twenty-one years old, who has been missing from his home on Darbytown Road since early Wednesday morning. The missing man had been ill with malarial fever for several weeks, and was just able to get around again, and it is feared that he has met with some misfortune through weakness. He is described as being five feet five inches in height, weighs ninety-five pounds, has dark hair and eyes and a very fair complexion. He was dressed in a brown suit and wore a brown cap when last seen. Cowan is a woodworker and is married, and has two small children.

Marriage Licenses.

Licenses to marry were issued yesterday
by the clerk of the Hustings Court to Grover Clark and Annie Porter Jenness, and Michael Kep and Julia Jaskewic.

> G. M. Co.'s Pearl I. C. (Re-dipped)

Roofing Tin

It's the standard by which all other roofing tins are measured.

Gordon Metal Co. 14th and Docks Sts., Richmond, Va.

Are You Getting It If not, our work and service is at Hello 1958 for wagon. The Royal Laundry M. B. Florsheim, Prop.

